Number 1 are the parents and grandparents of all generations.

Number 2's are the first generation of sons and daughters.

On down through all generations the figures whose numerical values are one greater than the figures placed in front of the Parents' names, indicate the children's names of the two parents first preceding them.

Number 3's indicate the first set of full cousins and number 4's, second cousins of all who are numbered 3, but Number 4's are all first cousins within their own generation; so also, are Number 5's and 6's, but second cousins to those whose numerical value is one less.

It will also be observed that families are traced from the oldest to its conclusion by families and all younger generations before a subsequent brother or sister is taken up, and so on through the whole family.

If a child is listed only under their parents, it is reasonable to assume that they either died as a child or never married.

In presenting this, the first volume of Genealogy of our forefathers, John and _____ Trapp Miller, we have no apologies to offer. To me, and to all others concerned, it is a most commendable and interesting undertaking in tracing out each line of descendents. But by the willing and very efficient help of the heads of the various families and all concerned, we have been enabled to complete a reasonably correct genealogy as far as I have been able to go. For this assistance, I am truly thankful. Without each and everyone of you, this book would not have extended as far as it has gone.

I have tried to share with you some of the interesting articles that I have found in connection with the gathering of information on the various families. I hope that you enjoy reading them as much as I did.

I trust that this first volume will enable us all to become better acquainted with each other and to more firmly unite us in brotherly love. May it be handed down to posterity as a precious heirloom.

I truly hope that future generations will revise this work and add to it when necessity demands and add any other families that might be unearthed after this printing!

And now to the memory of all past and future members of the Miller Families, this volume is dedicated.

Mrs. Robert J. Sliger

No other people that go to make up our cosmopolitian civilization have better habits of life than those who came origianlly from the Great German Empire.

These people are distinguished for their thrift and honesty and these two qualities alone in the inhabitants of any country will in the end make that country great!

When with these two qualities is coupled the other quality of sound sense, and strong German Characteristic, there are allorded such qualities as will enrich any land and place it at the top of the countries of the world in the scale of elevated hamanity. Of this excellent people came the ancestors of the present brances of the Miller Families.

They came from a race that is famous for its original investigations in the problem of civilized life, such men as Goethe & Heckel, to say nothing of a coterie of the greatest muscians of all lands and climes. He comes of a race that produced the famous "Iron Chancellor", the greatest statesman all thins considered, that ever walked this terrestrial sphere.

The Germanic blood is found in the veins of the greatest men and women of this and former generations and the Miller family may be proud of their descent from such a race.

The backbone of this country is made up of families who have made their homes; who are alive to the best interests of the community in which they reside; who are so honest that it is no trouble for their neighbors to know it, and who attend to their own business and are too busy to attend to that of others; who work on steadily from day to day, taking the sunshine with the storm and who rear a fine family to a comfortable home and honest life. Such people are always welcome in any country and in any community.

They are wealth producers and this country is blessed with many of them!

JOHN MATHIAS SHOUDEL

Written in 1914

John Mathias Shoudel was born in 1814 in Bavaria, Germany, and was the son of John Shoudel. He was reared and educated in his native land, and there, on reaching mature years, he married Magdalena Miller, a native of the same locality and a daughter of John Miller.

Mr. Shoudel learned the trade of a weaver in his native land and also gave some attention to farming. In 1854, desiring larger opportunities for advancement, he came to the United States. After spending a few months in New York, he went to Chicago, and while living there, in 1855, he sent for his family, who had remained in the fatherland. He was employed on the docks in Chicago, but in 1857, he joined, with four others, Frank A. Miller, John Miller, Xavier Schmidt and Frederick Schmidt, they brought their families to DeKalb County, where they bought 40 acres of land. They paid $300 dollars for the land and then they divided the land between them, eight acres each.

This land was located in Section 15, Smithfield township, and had not been disturbed by human hand since the red men left it. Mr. Shoudel at once cleared a spot on which he erected a log cabin, and applied himself to the strenuous task of felling the timber and getting the land in shape for cultivation. His first winter's efforts amounted to two acres of cleared land, and during that season the main diet of the family consisted of cornbread and wild game, of which latter there was an abundance.

Eventually Mr. Shoudel was able to buy a yoke of steers, and after a while, he secured a second yoke, which greatly facilitated his labors. He managed well, was wisely economical and at length was able to buy forty acres more land, and with this as a nucleus his affairs assumed a promising aspect. Industry, presistence and good management were the essential qualities which contributed to his success and he was able to buy more land from time to time until at the time of his death he was the owner of 200 acres of splendidly improved farm land. John Mathias Shoudel ~~xxxx~~ died in 1880 and was survived a few years by his widow, whose death occurred in 1886.

In the affairs of the community Mr. Shoudel took a leading part and no movement of any moment was launched without his assistance and cooperation. When St. Michael's Catholic church was instituted here during the eighties, Mr. Shoudel was one of the thirteen persons who requested the bishop of the diocese to establish the church and for many years he was on of the leading members of the parish. He was one of the oldest men in the community, and to him many looked for advice and counsel in their temporal affairs, and he ever proved worthy of their confidence. His integrity and fidelity were manifested in every relation of life, and his plain, rugged honesty, his open-hearted manner, undisguised and uneffected, is to his descendants a sweet and lasting memory.

Michael L. Shoudel who for many years has been one of the best know and influential citizens of Smithfield Twp., was born in Bavaria, Germany, in 1844, the son of Mathias and Magdalena Miller Shoudel. He was about 11 years of age when the family emigrated to the U. S., locating in Chicago in 1855. Two years later the came to the little patch of wild land in Smithfield Twp., where they made a start in their struggle for financial independence in a strange land. Here the subject of this sketch performed his full share of the strenuous toil incidental to the clearing of the land and putting it in shape for cultivation, and he distinctly recalls having plowed a six-acre field with a yoke of oxen which required ten days work, for the ground was full of roots and stumps and progress was exceedingly slow and wearing on both men and beasts.

Soon after his marriage in 1872 to Joanna Reinig, who was born in Bavaria, the daughter of Frank and Joanna (LaFreise) Reinig, Mr. Shoudel commenced his farming on his own account of 40 acres of land which he had received from his father and as he has prospered in his undertaking he bought more land from time to time, until he now owns 280 acres of as fine as can be found in DeKalb Co. He has been a hard worker continually from his first initiation into the pioneer struggle and indds in that early day at one time they would have returned to Chicago if they could have done so, but they had not been able to make much progress and were not financially able to make the trip, so they struggled on and the struggle became a triumph.

Mr. Shoudel has been an eye-witness and a participant in the wonderful growth which has characterized this section of the state and remembers well when Waterloo consisted of but three stores, a saloon, a hardward store, and a dry goods store and a few buildings, and he can remember when the court house at Auburn was a very primitive and poorly furnished affair.

He had but limited educational opportunities, never having attended school a day until after 16 years of age. He then started in the primer and in 58 days was in the third reader. The second winter he again attended school and worked hard to gain knowledge and has been a continual reader throughout his life and is today considered a man of wide and unusual information on many subjects. One of his leadeing qualities is his persistency in his application to any task to which he applies himself and this has enabled him to conquer where many others would have failed. In the public and civic life of the community, Mr. Shoudel has for many years been an influential factor and has always exerted his influence in favor of such movements as have tended to advance the best interests of the community.

The Shoudel's were parents of 11 children, and also reared Fred Elliott who was born Nov. 26, 1880 a son of George and Caroline Reinig Elliott, the latter having given up her life at the birth of her son. Fred died on Sept. 8, 1910.

The Shoudels and his family are all connected with the Catholic Church, in the prosperity of which they are deeply interested and to the support of which they contribute liberally. Mr. Shoudel is a man whom to know is to respect and admire for having started in a lowly capacity and has gradually forged to the front and by faithful effort and prompt discharge of every duty devolving upon him he finally acquired a comfortable competency and has won and retains the good will and regard of all who know him.

FREDERICK GFELLER, JR. Grandparents of Anna Shoudel childr.n.

In every community some men are known for their upright lives, strong common sense and industry, rather than for their wealth or political standing. Their neighbors and acquaintances respect them, and when they "wrap the drapery of their couches about them and lie down to pleasant dreams" posterity listens with reverance to the story of their quiet and useful lives. Among such men of a past genemation in DeKalb Co., was the late Frederick Gfeller, Jr., who was not only a progressive man of affairs, successful in material pursuits, but a man of modest and unassuming demeanor, a fine type of the reliable, self-made American, a friend to the poor, charitable to the faults of his neighbors and who always stood ready to unite with them in every good work and active in the support of laudable public enterprises, a man who in every respect merited the high esteem in which he was held.

Frederick Gfeller, Jr. was born in the canton of Berne, Switzerland, on May 15, 1850 and was the son of Frederick and Katherine Elizabeth Schiba Gfeller. When the subject was but 2 years old the family came to the U. S., locating in Stark Co., Ohio where they lived for several years. They then came to Smithfield Twp. locating just west of the Catholic Church. A year later they moved to the Hoffelder Farm remaining there 2 years. For a short time they then lived east of Waterloo, eventually returning to Smithfield Twp., where for 11 years the father engaged in farming. They then returned to the vicinity of Waterloo, the parents spending their last years in Union-town. They were the parents of 4 children, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, Frederick, Gottfried and Samuel.

Frederick Gfeller, Jr. remained with his parents until his marriage in October, 1872 to Mary A. Mehr, who was born in Germany in 1854, the daughter of Johannes and Dora Schoudel Mehr. Then he engaged in farming on his own account, leasing land from George Wolfe just east of the Catholic Church, where he remained 11 years. During that time he purchased land until he accumulated 220 acres of good land and was considered a very capable and successful business man.

Mr. Gfeller took a large interest in the welfare of the community in which he lived and was one of the original members of St. Michael's Church. He served as road supervisor and as constable, and was twice elected trustee of Smithfield twp., being nominated for a third term but dying before election day. He enjoyed a well-deserved popularity throughout the section of the county in which he lived. Enjoying a wide acquaintance, among whom were many warm personal friends.

Mrs. Mary Gfeller came to the United States in Aug. 1871, with her 15 year sister, Katherine, now Mrs. Frank P. Miller, and came at once to DeKal Co., making their home in Smithfield twp. Mary was 17 years old and could talk no English. She secured work in private families, with who she was employed for a number of years, and during this period acquired a thorough command of the English language. She became the mother of 4 children; Fred who married Annie Shoudel, Mary the wife of Thomas Smith of Kosciosko Co., Frank who married Anna Schiffli, and Dora who is the wife of Frank Walker. After Fr. Gfeller died on Nov. 24, 1895 and two years afterwards his widow married John Hoffelder.

ANDREW SCHIFFLI

DeKalb County, Ind., is characterized by her full share of enterprising and progressive farmers, who have been the mainstay and backbone of the wonderful development which has marked this section of the state during the past few decades, and today among this class stands Andrew Schiffli whose finely improved and cultivated farm lies in Smithfield township, where he enjoys a high standing among his fellow citizens.

Andrew Schiffli was born in Alsace, Germany, which formerly belonged to France, and is one of 9 children born to John & Victoria (Hahn) Schiffli, both also natives of Alsace. They were married in their native country and in 1881 they and their children came to the U.S., at which time, young Andrew was only 7 years old.

Andrew well remembers a stormy day on shipboard during their voyage when, because of the high waves which broke over the ship, the passengers were not allowed on deck. However, he disregarded orders and went out to the end of the deck, where he ran great danger of being washed overboard. He was found by a sailor, who gave him a liberal spanking and sent him to a safer spot. Upon their arrival in the U. S., the Schiffli family came at once to DeKalb County, where his father bought 20 acres of land in the northern part of Smithfield Township, about ½ mile south of the county line. After remaining there 4 years, he sold that place and bought 40 acres of land in section 11, on which only about 7 acres had been cleared and on which was a big house. The greater part of the land was covered with swamp, water and brush, and so bad was the condition that the cows mired in the barn lot. In the hope of improving the condition they moved the house, a log at a time, to a better location, and gave their attention the ditching and draining of the soil. At the beginning, it was necessary to go thru water waist deep to get the cows. Eventually by tireless effort, conditions were improved, and when about 15 years ago, the big ditch was put through their land, the soil rapidly became more cultivable, and now the farm is one of the best in the locality. From the time they came to this land until 1900, it took about all the efforts of the family, including the help given by the boys who worked in the shops, to pay all eight hundred dollars owing on the purchase of the farm. In 1900 Mr. Schiffli built a good bank barn; in 1902 a splendid house, and in 1903 a hog house. They are now prospering and reaping the just results of strenuous endeavor.

Andrew Schiffli lived at home until attaining his maturity, having ably assisted his father in the efforts to retain the farm and he secured what education was possible in the district schools. After arriving at legal age, he started work on his own account in the railroad shops at Garrett, where he remained 9 years, and then during the following 4 years, he engaged in farm work by the month. After his marriage in 1908, he began farming on the Baylor farm in Franklin Township, but two years later moved to the George Shoner farm in Section 13, Smithfield Township, where he is now engaged to the operation of 143 acres of land. His early farming efforts under his fathers direction were strenuous years, but they well qualified him for the later duties of life, and now he is achieving a splendid success under favorable conditions.

In 1908 Mr. Schiffli married Katie Shoudel daughter of Michael Shoudel. They and their children are members of the St. Michael's Catholic Church.

GEORGE MAY written in 1914

It is proper to judge of the success and the status of a man's life by the estimation in which he is held by his fellow citizens. They see him at his work, in his family circle, in his church, at his devotions, hear his views on public questions, observe the outcome of his code of morals, witness how he conducts himself in all the relations of society and civilization and thus become competent to judge of his merits and demerits. After a long course of years of such daily observation it would be out of the question for his neighbors not to know his worth, because, as has been said, "Actions speak louder than words." In this country there is nothing heard concerning the subject of this sketch but good words. He has passed so many years here that his worth is well known, but it will be of interest to run over the busy events of his life in these pages.

George May was born in Erie County, New York, a son of Valentine and Magdalene (Kuhn) May. Both of these parents were born in Alsace, France where Valentine grew to maturity and spent 7 years in the French Army. About 1850, Valentine came to American with his parents, the Rhinehart May's. He married Magdalene Kuhn, who was a daughter of Anthony and Christina Kuhn, and there he spent the remainder of his life, being engaged in farming, his death occuring on May 1, 1903. His widow is still living and resides at the old home in Erie County, being now 82 years old. Mrs. May's mother, Christina Kuhn, died May 5, 1911 at the remarkable age of 103 years. Christina Steinmetz Kuhn, mother of Christina Kuhn, lived to be 110 years old. She died three days after the battle of Wurth, where the Prussians so decisively defeated the French, her death being caused by fright when the house in which she was living was shot to pieces over her head by the cannon balls of the conflicting armies. She had practically been free of illiness during her entire life.

George May remained at the parental homestead in Erie County, New York, until 24 years old, having received his education in the district schools of that locality. In young manhood he learned the blacksmith's trade and was busily engaged at the forge, his early life being characterized by persistent industry.

In Feb., 1877 he came to DeKalb County, Ind., locating in Smithfield township, where for a year or two he farmed on shares. In April of the year of his arrival here he married Agnes Shoudel, the daughter of Matthias Shoudel. She was born in Chicago and was brought to this locality when about two weeks old, her parents settling in Smithfield township among the early pioneers.

About 5 years after his marriage George May brought the farm where he now resides in section 14, Smithfield Township and to this he has since devoted himself with the most persistent energy and with very gratifying results. The land which he owns is characterized by great fertility, a quality which he has maintained by careful rotation of crops and fertilization when necessary and he has made many substantial and permanent improvements, having erected most of the buildings and rebuilt the barns.

Mr. May is a citizen of broad views and of public spirit and one who takes pride in the progress of his township and the enhancement of the public seal. In 1900 he was elected township assessor and served in this office 4 years and also served 1 year as a member of the county council, having been elected in 1904, but resigning at the end of one year's service. He is the solicitor for the Mutual Fire Insurance Co., for Smithfield Twp., and for DeKalb County and also for the Mutual Cyclone Insurance Co., of Indiana and in this line is building up a large business.

Mr. May and his family are active members of the Catholic church, of which he was the youngest members when it was organized in this locality and of which he as been an earnest supporter and attendant since.

Mr. May and his wife move in the best social circles of the community and are extremely popular. Mrs. May is a lady of refinement and culture, her unassuming manner, charming personality and excellent traits of character gaining for her the firendship of all who meet her. Mr. May is an honest and upright man of the strictest integrity and nobly has he earned the wholesome reputation which is his.

From New York the family moved to Chicago where they operated a broom factory. During the Chicago Fire in 1871, they buried their possessions. Frank Schlosser was born in Chicago and later married Louise Pfefferkorn.

From Chicago, the family moved to Waterloo, Indiana and o operated a broom factory in Union Town. Fred Schlosser, was known as the "strongest man in Waterloo." He could raise a barrel of cider with his legs (while sitting on a chair) and at the same time, drink from the spigot.

Eight more children were born to this marriage, making 12 in all. Fred married Maude Schoudel and after her death, married her sister, Frances Schoudel. He settled in Wisconsin. Anna married a Mr. Jane. Rose married Charles Pillorid and settled near Ashley. Lena married Joseph Miller and to this marriage were born 2 mute children, John and Lena. Dora married Emry Martin, settled and Chicago. John married Thresea Schlosser and settled in the St. Michael's area. Thresea married Lou Martin and settled in Chicago.

The Schlossers left Waterloo and rented a farm from Abe Kelly north of Waterloo. After this, they bought a farm near Hamilton, Indiana, were they built the house there, living and sleeping in the barn during the building of the house.

Later they sold this farm and bought in Smithfield township, west of St. Michael's church and lived here the rest of their lives.

Fred still had a broom shed and made brooms and farmed. He died at the age of 71 in 1912. Cathering Schlosser lived from 1849 to 1917 and died at the age of 68.

JOHN HOFFELDER

John Hoffelder was born in 1843 in South Bavaria, Germany, and is the son of Francis Charles Hoffelder and wife. The subject was reared in his native land and received a good, practical education in the schools of that locality, remaining at home until 1870.

In the meantime he had followed the vocation of a farmer and also learned the trade of a weaver, raising flax and hemp in summer and spinning and weaving it into cloth in the winter. This was all done by hand, somewhat after the fashion of the early pioneers in this country, excepting that it was done by organized shop work. In the summer of 1870, Mr. Hoffelder concluded to emigrate to America, and reached Castle Garden in New York Harbor on August 7, 1870.

In November of that year he came to Smithfield township, coming directly to the German settlement, which was located in the midst of a dense tract of timber. The following spring, he went to near Cleveland, Ohio, where for a season he was employed in farm work and in November, 1871, he returned to DeKalb county and he and his brother-in-law rented a little place near where they now live.

In October, 1878, Mr. Hoffelder had about determind to go further west, but his landlord requested him to stay, offering to sell him the place on which he had been working. He had performed an enormous amount of hard work, interest rates were ten percent on an average and only part of his land was cleared. He had worked hard on this land nearly seven years, and had had a struggle to make both ends meet. The low part of the land had not been drained and altogether conditions were not very promising for the near future.

However, after much bargaining, in which he showed good business judgment and sagacity, he closed the deal and secured the land. It was a regular wilderness, but to its improvement he at once applied himself with a zeal and energy that soon showed definite results. His purchase comprised one hundred and twenty acres and to this he has during the subsequent years applied his energies with a soundness of judgment that has been productive of very gratifying results until few farmers in his locality are held in higher esteem. He has erected a comfortable and attractive residence, a commodious and well arranged barn, while the big yard surrounding the home has been set out with beautiful shade trees and shrubbery which adds greatly to the attractiveness and value of the place.

In the spring of 1912 Mr. Hoffelder planted 6000 nursery forest trees of various kinds. The following summer was extremely dry and many of these trees were lost. However, 2000 more were planted and 1400 more will be planted in the spring of 1914, altogether covering about six acres of land.

Politically, Mr. Hoffelder has been a life-long Democrat, and in 1888 he was elected a member of the board of Co. Commissioners and was re-elected to this office, thus serving 6 years. His record as a county commissioner is one of which he has good reason to be proud. When he entered upon the duties of his office but little real system prevailed in the conduct of the county affairs. Bridges over the county were cheap and flimsy and were rapidly wearing out, new ones being needed.

Mr. Hoffelder had traveled over Germany while a soldier in the army there and had also seen considerable of the country since coming to American and knew pretty well what good bridges should be like. The commissioners determined to revolutionize the methods of doing business and to this end they insisted on expert advice and exact and complete specifications, competition on bids and inspection of the work being done, which shoud be approved before being paid for. All these things tended to not only secure a better quality of work, but also saved the country many thousands of dollars. For this work alone he deserves the everlasting regard and commendation of his fellow citizens.

In 1873 Mr. Hoffelder married Frances Miller, who was born in Chicago, Illinois, the daughterof Francis Antone and Magdalene (Schmidt) Miller. Her parents were natives of Germany who came to American and settled in Smithfield township, where they spent the remainder of their lives.

Mrs. Frances Hoffelder died Jan. 29, 1895 and in 1897 Mr. Hoffelder married Mrs. Mary S. May Gfeller, the widow of Frederick Gfeller, deceased. Mr. Hoffelder and the members of his family are popular in the circles in which theymove and are highly respected by all who know them.

Mr. Hoffelder has attained success in spite of most discouraging circumstances. Coming to a new country with no knowlodge of its language, he was notable to speak English until after 50 years of age, but he now is able to converse with considerable freedon and speaks well. He has had a splendid career, including three monts service in the G rman Army during which he took part in the war of 1866, in which his country separated from the Hapsburgs of Austria, and resulted in the welding of the various states comprising the present German empire under the Hohenzollerns. He is a warm and true friend. Fearlessness is one of his marked characteristics and he hesitates not to do what he considers his whole duty regardless of the consequences.

Above all, he has been a man of unquestionable integrity and unblemished honor and he will do nothing which will lower himself in his own esteem or that of others.

FRANK CHARLES HOFFELDER

One of the native sons of DeKalb County who has remained and made a success of life right here in his own community rather than being lured away to some distant locality by the "wanderlust spirit" there to seek an uncertain fortune amid strange enviroment, is Frank C. Hoffelder. His parents were John and Frances Miller Hoffelder.

He spent most of his life until his marriage on the home place until, when about 22 years old, he worked for about 16 months in the Baltimore & Ohio railroad shops in Garrett and was also employed on a farm near Traverse City, Michigan for about 3 years.

In the fall of 1902 he bought 80 acres of land in section 3 and the lady who afterwards became his wife bought the 80 acres adjoining. In June of the following year, he married Louisa Dapp who was a daughter of Alois Dapp and Elizabeth Martin Dapp and they immediately located on the subject's farm and began the task of clearing the land and putting it under cultivation.

At the time they located on their new land, the only improvements were a long stable and a little old log cabin which had been built nearly a half century before, the ceiling of which was so low that a man could hardly stand upright in it. The entire tract was practically a wilderness, not having been drained and being mostly swamp land, but Mr. Hoffelder by the most strenuous labor succeeded in clearing it, ditching and tiling it and creating one of the best farms in this section of the county. He now has nearly 100 acres under cultivation and has erected a comfortable and attractive residence, substantial and commodious barns and other outbuildings and is following his agricultural operations along the most modern and up-to-date methods.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffelder and their family belong to the Catholic church, to which they contribute liberally of their means. Personally he is known to be a man of scrupulously honest principles, generous, kind and always ready to do his full share of the common duties of citizenship; in short, a genial, broad-minded man, whom to know is to admire and esteem. He has been very successful in his operations and has won the confidence of all who know him, owing to his honorable methods and upright life.

no Children

I wrote to Mrs. Battersby several times asking about her fathers family and this is what she wrote:

" My father never told me the names of his brothers and sisters. I remember he told me that his sisters name was Lena. She was married and her husband died. She went to the convent to become a nun. My father said he believes she was killed during the World War II. Lena had no children.

Father told me about his Mother - he was a small boy when his mother passed away. His father took care of his children after their mother died. She was very young to die. His father died at 73 or 75 years old. I am not sure of his age. I never knew what his mother's maiden name was. Its too bad that my father never wrote his family in the bible. My father went to Germany to visit his father 3 or 4 times. He planned to take me to Germany to meet his folks and relatives but he died from a heart attack while he was at work."

JOSEPH HOHL

Joseph Hohl was born in 1855 in Rhinepfalz, Germany and is a son of Sebastian and Mary Miller Hohl, the latter being born in January 1827. Sebastian Hohl died in his native land in 1866 at the age 40 years of age. He was a man of eminent respect ability and standing in his native community.

Joseph Hohl was reared in his German home, where he remained until he was 28 years of age. In Feb. 1883, he was united in marriage to Anna Leidner, a native of Rhinepfalz and a daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth Boltz Leidner.

In 1883 they came to America, locating at once in DeKalb Co., being employed in Frank Hamman's tile and brick yard in Smithfield township. In 1894 Mr. Hohl bought the farm where he now lives, comprising 77½ acres in section 15, Smithfield township, on which he has since resided and which he has developed into an ideal agricultural homestead. He has made many permanent and substantial improvements, not the least of which was moving the home out nearer to the public road and remodeling it; the building of a new and commodious bank barn and other improvements of a like nature, which have contributed to the general appearance and value of the farm. He has boughten land till he now owns 160 acres.

Starting in a strange land with but little capital and slight experience in farming, Mr. Hohl has achieved a success of which any man can be justifiably proud. All that he has been attained by the hardest kind of work, combined with grit and wisdom, good common sence and sound judgment, which have guided him in all his efforts.

Mrs. Hohl has contributed largely to her husband's success, encouraging him by her efforts and advising him wisely in his dealings, and together they have accumulated a gratifying portion of this world's goods.

HENRY DAPP - father of Elizabeth Dapp Hohl

Henry Dapp was born on Jan. 19, 1860 in Alsace, France, the son of Alois and Elizabeth Martin Dapp, both of who were born reared and married in Alsace, France where the father followed the pursuit of farming. Henry Dapp was reared in his native locality and in 1880, at the age of 20 years, accompanied his parents on their emigration to America, settling at once in Summit, where the father bought 160 acres of splendid land, comprising the northeast quarter of section 14, where he made his home, giving his undivided attention to the cultivation and improvement of his farm and took care of it as long as he lived. He was a man of sterling qualities of character and enjoyed the respect of the entire community. There were 6 children born to Alois and Elizabeth Dapp.

The subject of this sketch lived on the old home place, eventually buying 80 acres from his father and after the latter's death he bough out the interest of the other heirs in the remaining 80 acres of the estate. The place is well improved in every respect, the fertility of the soil having been maintained by judicious attention to the rotation of crops and fertilization, and Mr. Dapp has achieved a splendid success in his operations. He carries of a diversified system of farming, raising all the crops common to this locality and gives some attention to the breeding and raising of livestock, in which he has met with success.

In 1884 Mr. Dapp married Magdalene Schiffli, a daughter of Anthony Schiffli and to this union have been born 8 children: Mary, wife of John May, Elizabeth wife of Mathias Hohl, Theresa wife of John Schlosser, Anthony married Esther Gabe, John, Louise, Albert, and Katie, are at home with their parents.

Mr. Dapp and his family are all earnest members of the Catholic Church. Their lives have been such as to earn the warm commendation of all who know them, for they have been ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ true to their highest conceptions of right and in the civic life of the community, Mr. Dapp has taken an intelligent interest, giving his support at all times to every movement which has for its object the advancement of his fellow men. Personally, he is genial and companionable and has won a host of warm personal friends.

BALTASAAR MILLER

Toward the middle of the 19th Century, there lived in a town in Bavaria, Germany, a good and a GodOfearing couple, Baltasaar Miller and Magdalene Burkhart Miller by name.

Like the rest of their townspeople, they were people of just ordinary circumstances, Fr. Miller was a shoe-maker by trade, and while business was always fairly good, the profits were small and it therefore kept him jumping to provide for his wife and family.

There were four boys and two girls in his family of six. Several of his family came to the United States and there are still a few of the family still in Germany.

As a youth, Frank Peter Miller developed a keen interest in his father's trade, shoemaking, and in the course of time became his accomplished assistant. At the age of 18 however, he found himself at the first great crossroad of his life, because at that age a period of service with the army was compulsory. Having had a distinct disliking for a military career, he found himself toying with the idea of immigrating to America. Finally he made his choice, and bidding a fond farewell to his beloved family, he set sail in July 1871, for what was to become his new and permanent home.

Long before arriving in New York, he had already thought of Indiana as his definite objective, in so far as a number of relatives had preceeded him and had settled in the Hoosier State. Perhaps the real magnet which drew him immediately into those parts however, was Katherine Mehr, his boy-hood sweetheart, who also had made the journey before him.

On his arrival, he for a time made his home with an Aunt, Magdalene Sheudel, who generally speaking, looked after him until the time of his marriage to Katherine on Jan. 2, 1877.

On returning from Cleveland, Ohio, where the marriage took place, the yount couple went to housekeeping, and after living in several temporary dwellings, they in 1883 finally purchased their own home, about 3-quarters of a mile east of St. Michael's Catholic Church. Here they lived contentedly for many years, bringing thirteen children into the work, nine of whom survived to afford them much comfort in their old age.

John Baltasaar Miller is the oldest of the nine living children of Frank and Katherine Miller. Many are the stories he's often told of his childhood. It is indeed difficult for us of the present generation to understand and appreciate the hardships which had to be endured during these early days. There was the land to be cleared and drained. Tools and implements were scarce; and opportunities for education for the most part denied because of the necessity of having to help support and sustain the family. John did get to the end of the fifth grade however. As a young man, he learned to play the cornet and for several years contributed to the success of the St. Michael's parish band. For awhile, he worked out, especially during the winter months, thus earning a little money with which to make a payment on the farm he brought for himself.

On April 27, 1904, he married Mary Ann Zircher. She was the youngest daughter of Michael and Mary Ann Fetters Zircher. SShe was the only one of six children born in this country. The rest were borm in Germany and came to this country with their parents.

Mary Ann's early childhood was spent on the Zircher farm near the little community known as Summit. After completdnghher primary education, she began working out, thus contributing to the support of the family. She also managed to save /a littlbe of the side, thus helping with the down-payment of the farm after she was married.

Written by Father Herman Miller at the 50th Wedding Anniversary of Nicholas and Julia Miller - Nov. 1969

It is said that previously, people had a Past, a Present and a Future to talk about. Today our fullest present appreciations and thankfulness goes to God for the grace and fact that God Gives a 50 years of Post World War Number 1 to our Jubelarians, Nicholas and Julia Miller and in that measure to all family folks immediate and distant.

To us Grandfather John Miller and then Frank A. Miller and his family of living children is like and early Large Oak Tree in this Celebration. John Miller and Sophie Koehler Miller the one from Bundenthal and Sophie Koehler same name tis said from London and this is a possibility of present life there for the faith and Thus - with many others shipped to America.

Here in this community there are three Holy Hills of Resting places on important early members to make up this community. They lie buried in St. Michael's Cemetery; in an old cemetery East of Waterloo and in Sacred Way on the Schiffli and later Buchs farm toward Conley. As Americans of the Buchs-Miller families, we are multiplied migrants. Long ago of the 4th century - as Allanni around Switzerland from the Volga River Regions in the migration of Nations and later settled in the Palitanate Bavaria, either as from Vosage Mountain foothills as Asletians and as villagers of Bundenthal. As Alsatians, we have a French Language background also as well as Palitanate German. Our voting citizenship depended on the wars and peace as to what major country declared our taxes and citizenship control. As Alsatians we kept word root forms of the early Allanni language.

Here in the United States we have Four Root Centers. The CHURCH, the FAMILY HOME, the LAND and the COMMUNITY. Here we have gone through various mechanical and transportation developments. There were the oxen, the buckboard, the railroad, wood fired and then coal, and then diesel oil. The electric street car or inter-urban came and went. Then came the bicycle. Around 1912 there came the automobile, then the piston plane--- the jets, and now the family. Credit to self and to our country is that our Jubilarian husband Nick also named Lewis as an expression of his mothers side of the family the tendancy to the French, that he volunteered for military service and lived overseas during the big First World War. God spared him in military life and now unto fifty yearsof civilian married life. His star of the military hung in the church and in the family home window as a military person.

In 1932, Father Herman Miller visited back in the European Homeland of the Vosage Mountain foothill village of Bundenthal and was in the near area of Schirein as travel then allowed. The Miller Clan family house in Bundenthal was a stately square two story family home with something of a tile roof. It stood near the bath or village stream. This stream was the clothes washing arena for the laundry of the villagers. It had a nice-fertile looking lawn yard. Mr. Miller in military to and from France twice did bombing damage to these villages... tis said. Ripe old age was a fact with many of the village folks. The parish church was of stone.. the chapel of St. Wendeling functioned at the other end of the village.
